WebCollection Plus®

Search Your Library Collection Anytime, Anywhere

WebCollection Plus from Follett Software enables anytime, anywhere access to your collection. All users need is your library's URL address and a web browser and they can search the collection from the convenience of home, school or any other location.

Search in English, Spanish or French

To help your multilingual student populations search for resources, WebCollection Plus is also available in English/Spanish or English/French search interfaces:

- ✓ Students enter a search term
- ✓ Related records are searched and results appear in the same language that was used to catalog them. For example, if your records were cataloged in English, the search results will be displayed in English
- ✓ English, Spanish and French help screens are also available to ensure successful searches

Convenient Access to the Information You Need

WebCollection Plus brings students powerful searching by title, author, subject, keyword, call number, series and Boolean terms, and includes these powerful features:

- ✓ Install WebCollection once on your web server and your collection will be accessible from multiple workstations
- ✓ Submit interlibrary loan and hold requests 24 hours a day
- ✓ Check item availability
- ✓ Create custom bibliographies by placing selections in a "Bookbag" for future access
- ✓ Search for titles associated with Accelerated Reader®, Reading Counts!™ and Lexile® Measures
- ✓ Access customized local information, such as library hours, checkout policies, library and school event information and more
- ✓ Link to cross references and related electronic resources, such as web sites
- ✓ Click on customized links that point students to selected web sites

Students, parents and the community have easy, 24-hour online access to your collection with WebCollection Plus. Choose community-wide access to your collection over the Internet or district-only access over your Intranet. With a single install of WebCollection Plus on your web server, your library collection will be instantly accessible from multiple workstations. WebCollection Plus runs on any Windows® or Macintosh® computer with a web browser.
